WANTING MORE MONEY CAN SOMETIMES MAKE US DO WRONG THINGS

1. Jesus arrived in Jerusalem on a donkey. He made his way to the Temple. Lots of people waved palms to show him how happy they were to see him.

2. Jesus went into the temple courtyard. He was angry because people were selling things instead of praying.

3. He turned over the tables and sent all the money flying.

4. The leaders of the temple were very angry with Jesus. They decided they wanted to get rid of him.

5. Judas was a disciple, but he loved money more than he loved Jesus. He went to the leaders and said he would help them arrest Jesus if they paid him.

6. Jesus knew some people hated him, but he loved everyone in spite of what they did to him. He loves us even though we do wrong things.

   JESUS LOVES ME (draw yourself)

Write in the missing words:

Jesus did the _______ thing but it made others _______ and upset and people hated him for it.

Judas did the _______ thing. Some people were very _______ with that, but it led to Jesus being arrested and killed.

pleased  right  wrong  angry